March

DOJPR A-nv-yi-li-sv Strawberry Moon

A-nv-yi-li-sv = March (Month of the Strawberry Moon) – in this month, the Cherokees honored the fruits of the field, gathering a new harvest of the gifts of the Creator. Those who are born under the Strawberry Moon are loving, gentle and giving, although they can lean toward being overly giving, emptying their own larder for the sake of others.

*Birds of the Cherokee Nation.
Translations, descriptions, & meanings of birds & months by David Cornsilk*

The New Moon is March 27th and the Full Moon is March 12th.

Upcoming Events:

March 11:

A presentation by the New Mexico Wolf Sanctuary.

April 8:

The Young at Heart Choral Group, 50+ members strong, will entertain after lunch.

May 13:

Instead of the lunch buffet, there will be a picnic (weather permitting) in the park across from the Bear Canyon Senior Center.

Ballots for the council member positions may be cast at the May town meeting rather than mailing them.

Council ballots will be sent out to all CSWT members who did not vote at the town meeting on May 10th. They must be returned by the 8th of June.

June 10:

Jennie Brooks will host a presentation on Driving Safely with 18 Wheeler-Trucks.

The council ballots will be opened and counted at the June 10th town meeting. The announcement of the new council members shall be made at the June town meeting.

July 8:

Veterans' Program – Leon Cooper

August 12:

The assistant editor and reporter from the Cherokee Phoenix will give a presentation on the history of the Cherokee Phoenix and how it operates today.

September 9:

Not Scheduled yet

October 14:

Susan Lundy will give a hands-on presentation on Painting Gourds.

November 11:

Silent Auction + Thanksgiving Program

December 9:

Hosted Brunch and White Elephant Exchange.
